1. General Information

Mauritius includes the Republic of Mauritius, Rodrigues, and Agalega.

1.1 Official currency

The official currency of Mauritius is the Mauritian Rupee (MUR).

1.2 Tax year

July to June.

1.3 Revenue service

Mauritius Revenue Authority (MRA) - www.mra.gov.mu

2. Administration and Compliance

MRA Website

2.1 Monthly PAYE Return

Every employer is required to submit, electronically, a monthly contribution return on a monthly basis giving the details of each employee, the CSG, NSF and Training Levy applicable and at the same time electronically pay the contributions payable to the MRA

2.2 Return of Employees (ROE)

The Return of Employees should be submitted electronically by 15th August every year at latest through MRA's website or the system made available by Mauritius Network Services(MNS).

2.3 Statement of Emoluments(SOE)

Employers are required by law to give to all their employees a tax certificate known as an SOE for the tax year, irrespective of whether PAYE has been deducted or not.

3. Pay As You Earn (PAYE)

MRA PAYE guide

3.1 Exempt employee

No PAYE is required to be deducted from the monthly emoluments of an employee where such emoluments do not exceed Rs38 462.

3.2 Taxable Emoluments

“Emoluments” mean any advantage in money or in money’s worth and include:

Salary, wages, leave pay, fee, overtime pay, perquisite, allowance, bonus, gratuity, commission or other reward or remuneration in respect of or in relation to the office or employment of an individual and any fringe benefits;

Superannuation, compensation for loss of office, pension (including a pension to a former employee or to the surviving spouse of that employee), retiring allowance, annuity or other reward in respect of or in relation to past employment or loss or reduction of future income of an individual, whether receivable by that individual or by any person who is or has been the spouse or dependent of that individual.

3.3 Pension

A pension received by a person under a personal pension scheme is not emoluments and is therefore not subject to PAYE. However, the amount of pension received under a personal pension scheme is taxable upon assessment and should be declared by the recipient in his annual return of income.

3.4 Commission

All commissions paid by an employer to his employee form part of emoluments and are subject to PAYE, e.g. commissions on sales paid to an employee. However, commissions paid to a person who is not an employee of the payer are not subject to PAYE, but are chargeable to tax on assessment, and should be declared by the recipient in his annual return of income.

3.5 Tips

Tips or any amount of a similar nature placed in a fund in the custody of the employer and eventually shared among the employees form part of emoluments and are therefore subject to PAYE.

Tips received directly by an employee in the performance of his duties are not subject to PAYE. However, the tips received are taxable in the hands of the employee and should be declared by him in his annual return of income.

4. PAYE Tax Rates

4.1 Tax tables

From (Rs)	To (Rs)	Tax rate
0,00	500 000,00	0%
500 000,01	1000 000,00	10%
1000 000,01	and more	20%

Non-residents deriving income from Mauritius are subject to tax at the same rate as residents.

Workers receiving their pay daily after each day's work are excluded from the operation of the PAYE system.

The amount of tax to be withheld from the emoluments of each pay period is calculated on a cumulative basis by cumulating both the emoluments and the Income Exemption Threshold pertaining to the current and previous pay periods in the income year concerned.

4.2 Employees with no EDF

Where an employee who derives emoluments exceeding Rs30 000 in a month and he has not submitted an EDF, the employer is required to deduct tax under PAYE at the flat rate of 15% unless the employee makes a request to the employer for PAYE to be withheld at the rate of 20%.

4.3 Fees payable to a director of a company

Fees payable to a company director or a member of a Board, Council, Commission, Committee of a statutory body. In such case, PAYE is applicable at the flat rate of 15% unless the director or board member makes a request to the company or the person responsible for the payment of the emoluments for PAYE to be withheld at the rate of 20%.

5. Fringe Benefits

Income Tax Act, Section 10 (Also specified in Ninth Schedule)

5.1 What are fringe benefits?

A fringe benefit is any advantage in money's worth provided to an employee in respect of or in relation to his employment.

Any fringe benefits an employer provides to his employee is taxable and must be included in the employee's pay.

However, a payment by an employer:

- to provide a pension or retiring allowance for the employee or his dependents.
- to a scheme approved by the Director-General to provide against medical expenses for the employee or his dependents; does not constitute a taxable benefit.

Fringe benefits treated as emoluments for PAYE purposes include housing benefit, car benefit, tax benefit, full board and lodging to expatriates or locals, personal expenses of the employee which are borne by the employer and any other advantage in money's worth.

5.2 Car Benefit

(Effective 1 October 2025)

For cars costing up to MUR 3 million:

Cylinder Capacity:

- Up to 1600cc Rs 12 000
- 1601 to 2000cc Rs 13 500
- above 2000cc Rs 15 000
- Electric Car Rs 13 500

For cars costing more than MUR 3 million:

- More than MUR 3 million to MUR 5 million Rs 25 000
- More than MUR 5 million to MUR 8 million Rs 35 000
- More than MUR 8 million Rs 50 000

5.3 Housing benefit

Where property is:

- Owned by the employer:
 - Unfurnished - 10 per cent of employee's total emoluments.
 - Furnished - 15 per cent of employee's total emoluments.
- Rented by the employer - Actual Rent Paid

5.4 Accommodation benefit provided by hotels

- Full board and lodging:
 - Single - Rs 11 500
 - Married - Rs 15 700
- Accommodation:
 - For managing and supervisory staff - Rs 4 400
 - Other staff - Rs 2 200

5.5 Interest free loans or loans at reduced rates

Difference between the amount of interest for the month, calculated at 2 per cent per annum above the repo rate, prevailing at the end of that month, and the amount of interest paid by the employee in that month.

5.6 Tips received by an employee from a pool managed by the employer

Actual amount received in the month.

5.7 Repayment or write-off of employees' debt by employer

Amount of debt repaid or written off in the month.

5.8 Domestic and private expenses borne by employer including utilities, wages of housemaids, school fees of children, club membership fee and any other domestic and private expenses

Actual amount paid for the month.

5.9 Tax paid by the employer

Tax benefit is arrived at by dividing the tax payable on the actual emoluments by a factor which varies according to the marginal tax rate applicable

Note: For the purposes of items 1 and 2, any contribution made by an employee to his employer shall be deducted from the car benefit or housing benefit, as the case may be.

For the purposes of item 2, total emoluments shall exclude the prescribed bonus and housing benefit

Section 22 of Income Tax Act

Contributions to superannuation fund

(1) Subject to subsection (2), an employer may deduct any amount irrevocably paid by him to provide -

(a) a pension or retirement allowance to his employees and their dependants under a superannuation fund; and

(b) for the medical expenses of his employees and their dependants under a scheme approved by the Director-General.

(2) Notwithstanding section 18, where an amount paid by an employer under subsection (1) is a lump sum payment in respect of past services of employees, one-tenth of the payment shall be deductible in the income year in which the payment is made and in each of the 9 succeeding years.

Section 61 of Income Tax Act

The provisions of section 22 shall apply in all respects to a company as they apply to an individual.

7. End of year Bonus

End of year gratuity Act

Where an end of year bonus prescribed by an enactment is received or made available to an employee other than an exempt person, the following procedures should be followed for the purpose of withholding tax under PAYE.

Among other things, Section 3 of the End of year Gratuity Act states the following:

“(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, every employer shall, on or before 21 December of every year, pay a gratuity to every employee who is or has been in his continuous employment during the year.

8. Exemptions, deductions and reliefs

Income Tax Act, Part C, D and E (Section 27)

An employee who, is entitled to an income exemption threshold, reliefs and deductions in respect of that income year. Such an employee may submit an EDF electronically to his employer through the MRA platform.

If an Employee has more than one Employer at any one time, the form should be submitted to only ONE of his Employers.

Where during the income year, an employee becomes entitled to new exemptions, reliefs and deductions, he may submit to his employer a fresh EDF claiming therein the new exemptions, reliefs and deductions to which he is entitled.

An employee can apply for the following exemptions, deductions and relief on the EDF:

- Deduction for dependents
- Additional deduction granted to retired or disabled person
- Additional deduction in respect of dependent child pursuing undergraduate course
- Interest relief on secured housing loan
- Relief for medical insurance premium or contribution
- Deduction for solar energy investment allowance
- Deduction for rainwater harvesting investment allowance
- Deduction for fast charger investment allowance in respect of electric car
- Deduction for donation to charitable institutions
- Deduction for contribution made to approved personal pension schemes
- Deduction for parents with children in full-time fee-paying private schools
- Deduction for the employment of a carer

9. National Savings Fund (NSF)

The National Savings Fund was established in 1995 under the National Savings Fund Act. The benefits payable are based on the employment period and contributions paid.

9.1 Who contributes to the fund and at what rate?

Every employee both in private and public sector aged between 18 and retirement age who works under either a full time or a part time contract of service.

No NSF contributions are payable in respect of an employee who has reached retirement age (65 years old) whether or not the employee receives Contributory Retirement Pension (CRP).

Employers pay a monthly contribution of 2.5% of the basic wage or salary, on behalf of employees, subject to a ceiling which is periodically revised.

Employees contribute 1% of their basic wage or salary to the National Savings Fund, subject to the same ceiling.

9.2 Contributions payable in favour of foreign workers

With effect from 01-01-2014, contributions in favour of foreign workers, to the National Pensions Fund (NPF), National Savings Fund (NSF*) and HRDC Levy are payable as from the first day of employment, except, for foreign workers working in the export manufacturing enterprises, where contributions to the NPF, NSF & HRDC Levy will be payable after two years of continuous residence.

Contributions made to the NSF should be rounded down to the nearest Rupee in all the MRA reports.

9.3 Minimum & Maximum Remuneration for NSF

Minimum and maximum basic wage on which contributions to the National Pension Fund (NPF) & National Savings Fund (NSF) are payable as from 1st July 2025:

Pay period	INSURABLE SALARY
	Minimum Wage		Maximum wage
	Private Household Employees (MUR)	Employees in other sectors (MUR)	For all employees (MUR)
Daily	108	169	1 099
Weekly	645	1 015	6 593
Fortnightly	1 290	2 031	13 186
Half Monthly	1 398	2 200	14 285
Monthly	2 795	4 400	28 570

The above limits do not apply to the HRDC Training Levy.

10. Human Resource Development Levy (HRDC Levy)

Also known as Training Levy.

From 1 July 2021 the training levy is 1.5% of employee's basic salary.

There is no maximum or minimum contribution.

No Training Levy is payable in respect of an employee after he has attained final retirement age (65 years old). Where an employee has not reached final retirement age, training Levy is payable whether or not the employee receives Contributory Retirement Pension (CRP).

11. Contribution Social Généralisée (CSG)

Under the CSG, employers are required to deduct, where applicable, the employee's contribution from his wage or salary and pay that contribution together with the employer's contribution to the MRA. The rate of contribution applicable is shown in the table below.

Category of employee	Employee Rate	Employer Rate
An employee, other than a Public Sector employee, earning a basic wage or salary NOT exceeding Rs 50,000 in a month	1.5 per cent	3 per cent
An employee other than a Public Sector employee earning a basic wage or salary exceeding Rs 50,000 in a month	3 per cent	6 per cent
Public Sector employee earning a basic wage or salary not exceeding Rs 50,000 in a month	Not applicable	4.5 per cent

Public Sector employee earning a basic wage or salary exceeding Rs 50,000 in a month	Not applicable	9 per cent
An employee who is in the domestic service earning a basic wage or salary NOT exceeding Rs 3,000 in aggregate in a month, from one or more employers	Not applicable	3 per cent

No CSG contribution is payable to the Mauritius Revenue Authority(MRA) for employees who are non-citizens and non-tax residents.

11.1 Prescribed Bonus

Social contributions apply on end of year bonus prescribed under an enactment. The social contributions payable on end of year bonus shall be computed separately from the contributions payable on the monthly basic wage/salary. The social contribution on end of year bonus shall be calculated on the basic wage/salary component only (excluding any allowance, commission, productivity payment etc).

Where in a calendar year an employer effects payment of the statutory end of year bonus in more than one month, the social contribution rate applicable in each month shall be determined by cumulating the amount of end of year bonus paid in the respective month.

12. Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund (PRGF)

New statutory contribution

The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund (PRGF) is a fund which is established under the Mauritius Workers' Rights Act 2019 for the purpose of providing for the payment of a gratuity on the death or retirement of an employee, while recognizing the employee's terms of service irrespective of the number of employers served.

12.1 PRGF Contribution Rates

The PRGF contribution rate is 4.5 % of the monthly remuneration of each worker, paid by the employer. However, Small and Medium Enterprises (SME) will pay PRGF at a lower rate for the first three years. The PRGF rate applicable on monthly remuneration is based on the annual turnover of the SME.

On filing the PRGF monthly return, the employer is required to select the annual turnover in which it falls from the following list:

- Not more than Rs 2 million
- More than Rs 2 million but not more than Rs 10 million
- More than Rs 10 million but not more than Rs 50 million
- More than Rs 50 million

Where MRA already has the information about the annual turnover, the selection will be pre-set.

“Monthly remuneration” means the sum total of:

(a) the monthly basic wages paid to a worker; and

(b) any productivity bonus, attendance bonus and payment for extra work performed, on the basis of which monthly contribution is paid to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund in relation to the worker;

12.2 Contributions for services prior to 1 January 2020

An employer will be required to pay contributions in respect of eligible employees who are in his employment on 1 January 2020, for the services of those employees from their date of entry to 31 December 2019.

A moratorium period will be granted with a view to alleviating the initial financial burden on employers in respect of those contributions for past services. Contributions for past services can be paid at the end of the term of service of the employee, with the contribution based on the final monthly salary.

The employer has also the option to pay the contribution for past services at any time before the end of the term of service of the employee, in which case the contribution for those past services will be computed based on the last monthly salary as at 1 January 2020.

12.3 Exemptions

The PRGF applies to all employees other than:

- Expatriates
- Public sector employees whose retirement benefits are administered by the Statutory Bodies Pension Funds Act
- Employees drawing a monthly basic salary of over MUR 200 000
- Employees already covered by a private pension fund

12.4 Effective date

It should be noted that although Proclamation 45 of 2019 stated the effective date for the PRGF as 1 January 2020, Cabinet postponed the entry into force of the PRGF until 1 April 2020, as many companies might not be ready to implement this in time.

The obligation to submit monthly PRGF returns and make payment of contribution has been postponed to Jan 2022. However, employers may opt to file the monthly PRGF return and make payment of PRGF accordingly.

Where an employee resigns or his employment is terminated, the employer has a legal obligation to submit an exit statement to MRA in respect of that employee. The Ministry of Social Security will thereafter notify the employer of the amount of PRGF to be paid to MRA in respect of past services of that employee.

13. Fair Share Contribution

Sub-Part AB of the Income Tax Act.

The fair share contribution applies, in addition to his liability to income tax, to individuals whose income threshold exceeds MUR 12 million in an income year.

13.1 Contribution Rate

The Fair Share Contribution is levied at the rate of 15% of leviabale income exceeding MUR 12 million. Withheld monthly by the employer.

Therefore, Where, in a month, the emoluments of the individual exceed Rs 923,077 (Rs 12,000,000 ÷ 13), the employer is required to withhold PAYE for Fair Share Contribution at the rate of 15% of that part of the emoluments that exceeds Rs 923,077.

13.2 Definitions

Income Threshold

Sum of:

- Net income of the individual; and
- Dividends received from resident companies and registered co-operative societies.
- Share of dividends that an individual would be entitled to receive from a resident société or succession, assuming all dividends received by that entity were fully distributed among its associates or heirs.

Excluding:

- Dividends/distributions made by a global business entity; and
- Lump-sum payments received as commutation of pension or by way of death gratuity or as a consolidated compensation for death or injury, and paid by virtue of any enactment, from a superannuation fund, and under a personal pension scheme approved by the Director-General.

Leviable Income

Sum of:

- Chargeable income;
- Dividends from resident companies and co-operative; and
- Share of dividends that an individual would be entitled to receive from a resident société or succession, assuming all dividends received by that entity were fully distributed among its associates or heirs.

Excluding:

- Dividends/distributions made by a global business entity; and
- Lump-sum payments received as commutation of pension or by way of death gratuity or as a consolidated compensation for death or injury, and paid by virtue of any enactment, from a superannuation fund, and under a personal pension scheme approved by the Director-General.

13.3 Effective date

The Fair Share Contribution must be declared by the individual in their Personal Income Tax Return, with a submission deadline of 15 October.

It will apply to income earned from 1 July 2025 and will remain in effect for two income years, up to and including the 2027–2028 tax year.

The contribution will be collected through the PAYE system.
